Police continue to tackle crime with impact on rural community

AVON and Somerset Police have reiterated their commitment in tackling rural crime, following a massive operation in South Somerset which saw several items of stolen agricultural machinery recovered.

The operation in South Somerset saw officers recover several items of agricultural machinery suspected to be stolen, including a log splitter, livestock trailer and a diesel Bowser.

by Peter Hodges

Other suspected stolen items were also recovered, including power tools, alcohol and items of food. Officers then found a large tub of white powder, which is suspected to be amphetamine.

Superintendent Mike Prior, who leads on rural crime for the force, said: "We are committed to tackling and disrupting criminality that targets and impacts on our rural communities and businesses.

"Theft and burglary, particularly of machinery and livestock, has an enormous impact on the livelihoods of our farmers. We are listening and we are taking action.

"The Rural Crime Team are now identifying the rightful owners of the property seized on December 12th and will continue working with colleagues, local partners and the community to both prevent and detect crime across Somerset.

"We will also continue to listen, work with and feed back to the Rural Crime Forum, who represent a variety of groups and organisations across Somerset to ensure that our communities feel represented and kept up-to-date with our activities."

Police and Crime Commissioner Sue Mountstevens repeated

Superintendent Prior's thoughts, saying: "The constabulary are working hard to tackle rural crime and to bring offenders to justice. The police and I take the concerns of our rural communities very seriously and I hope that this operation offers reassurance to them.

"Burglary is extremely disruptive and upsetting and can make some people feel unsettled in their own home for a long time. It's important that residents across Avon and Somerset are safe and feel safe and that they know that any type of burglary will not be tolerated.

Crimestoppers say that rural crime covers a wide range of crimes but includes theft of machinery, vehicles, heating oil, metal, diesel and pesticides.

A spokesperson for Crimestoppers said: "Thieves are known to target high-value agricultural equipment and many top-of-the-range stolen vehicles are smuggled out of the country, ending up in eastern Europe.

"A new trend is emerging of criminals seeking out older models that are not fitted with immobilisers and alarms. Much of this stolen property is then sold to developing nations."

NFU Mutual estimated that in 2015 rural crime cost Somerset £1.1million, putting it seventh in the top ten counties affected.

Superintendent Prior added: "We all have a part to play, and communities are stronger and safer when we work together.

"Please help us to help you by taking steps to minimise the risk of falling victims to thieves."

The search warrant took place in Ilchester and a 44-year-old man was arrested and bailed pending further inquiries.

JOBS NEWS

First increase in number on the dole since February

THE number of Jobseeker's Allowance (JSA) claimants in Devon increased by 13 during November.

It is the first rise in the number of claimants since February – the total claimant count now standing at 2,860, which is 23 per cent lower than the same time last year.

The number of youth claimants (aged 24 and under) increased by 15 across Devon between October and November.

At a district level, East Devon, Exeter, North Devon and Teignbridge experienced increases of between five and 10 youth claimants.

Torridge and West Devon fell by five youth claimants each, with Mid Devon and South Hams remained unchanged.

Councillor Andrew Leadbetter, Devon County Council's Cabinet Member for Economy and Growth, said: "Whilst November's

JSA data shows a slight rise in claimants for Devon, the overall trend for the year remains encouraging.

"We continue to back schemes aiming to reduce unemployment, boost wages and increase the diversity of the Devon economy.

"Our network of Work Hubs throughout Devon is providing valuable shared employment space for start-ups.

The Devon Delivers Business Promotion grant is also helping businesses tap into growing markets, with initiatives such as Devon's Fab Lab and Enterprise in Schools, helping boost digital skills and encourage entrepreneurial spirit in our youth.

"We are also working with new European Social Fund programmes to help those furthest from the labour market to improve their employability and skills."

Cannabis haul worth £100k seized by East Devon police

POLICE seized suspected cannabis to an estimated street value of £100,000 during a raid in East Devon on December 15th.

Police have not disclosed the exact location of the raid, but officers at the scene tweeted a photo of the haul shortly after it had been seized. The value was estimated at £100,000.

A police spokesperson said that the premises in question were empty when officers struck, so there were no arrests.

In a brief statement issued the following morning, a police spokesperson said: "A warrant was executed yesterday in East Devon, we are unable to comment further on this live investigation, at this time."

Prescriptions reminder

DOCTORS in Devon are urging patients to make sure they have enough medication to see them over the four-day Christmas holiday, as well as reminding people how to access health care services when surgeries are shut.

GP surgeries will close on Friday, December 23rd and, because of the bank holidays this year, won't re-open until Wednesday, December 28th. Information about which pharmacies are open over the festive period is available online at <http://bit.ly/2hL6sJN>

District council's first civic carol service well attended

PETER HODGES
EAST DEVON reporter

MORE than 100 Devon and East Devon dignitaries and guests attended the first ever East Devon District Council Chairman's Civic Christmas Carol Service, which took place in Sidmouth recently.

VIP guests included the Deputy Lord Lieutenant of Devon, Philip Jenkinson, Devon High Sheriff, Angela Gilbert and East Devon MP Neil Parish.

The hour long service, which was led by The Reverend Canon Dr Philip Bourne, featured music by the Sidmouth Town Band and uplifting choral renditions of 'Away In A Manger' and 'Holly And Mistletoe,' sung by children from the local primary school.

The congregation sang a selection of familiar carols, chosen by the local community at the request of Councillor Stuart Hughes, the chairman of East Devon District Council.

Following the service, Councillor Hughes invited his guests to Kennaway House where they enjoyed an afternoon tea.

Commenting on the carol service and tea, Councillor Hughes said: "I would like to say a massive thank you to everyone who helped organise this carol service, especially Maria Pearce from East Devon District Council, and another thank you to all my guests for coming and helping make this event so special.

"Everyone was on tremendous vocal form and the energetic singing nearly lifted the roof off the lovely parish church.

"I think it is fair to say that this joyful occasion, which I hope will be the first of many civic carol services to be held by future chairmen of the council, has put everyone well on course for Christmas and it just remains for me to wish all of East Devon a very Merry Christmas and a Happy & Prosperous New Year."

MP Neil Parish joined Cllr Stuart Hughes for afternoon tea following the first ever Civic Christmas Carol Service

Teenager killed in A3052 crash

A TEENAGE boy died after a car crashed into a tree on the A3052 near Lyme Regis.

The boy, a 17-year-old from Lyme Regis, was pronounced dead at the scene and the driver, a 28-year-old man from Colyton, was flown to Derriford Hospital in Plymouth where he is in critical condition.

The single-car crash, involving a dark coloured Honda Civic, took place at about 12.30am on Saturday morning at Ware Cross on the Dorset and Devon border.

Police and ambulance crews attended the scene, as well as the police helicopter from Exeter, who flew the driver to Plymouth.

A specialist forensic investigation was carried out at the scene, which resulted in the A3052 being closed for approximately nine hours.

Collision investigators said that it was a particularly complex scene, which accounted for the unusually long road closure.

Police are appealing for witnesses to this incident or anyone who may have seen this car shortly before the incident to contact them by emailing 101@dc.police.uk or call 101 quoting log 30 of 17 December 2016.

Flowers have been left at the scene of the crash on the A3052 in memory of a 17-year-old boy from Lyme Regis

Police station 'no longer value for money', says commissioner

POLICE and Crime Commissioner for Avon and Somerset, Sue Mountstevens, has hinted that Chard Police Station could close.

Ms Mountstevens was in Chard on Wednesday, December 7th to meet local councillors and people and discuss various policing issues and concerns.

Ms Mountstevens met at Chard Police Station with the Mayor, Councillor Dave Bulmer, Deputy Mayor, Councillor Garry Shortland, and fellow town and district councillors Jason Baker and Amanda Broom.

"I want to be clear that although local people may see the police moving out of existing police stations, this does not mean that they are moving from the local area," she said.

"I reiterate my commitment that the local communities of Avon and Somerset, including Chard, will have defined policing footprint.

"Chard Police Station is too big and no longer value for money for local people.

"The Constabulary and I are currently exploring co-location options with partners, which will not only ensure value for money for local people, but will also be more convenient for residents by offering multiple services in one place."

Recent announcements have been made elsewhere that the police station in Yeovil will close and officers will move into Yeovil Fire Station, while a similar arrangement will happen in Nailsea where police will move in with that town's firefighters.

It is therefore a possibility that Chard police officers may sooner rather than later be working out

■ AVON and Somerset Police and Crime Commissioner, Sue Mountstevens (centre), with Councillors Jason Baker, Garry Shortland, Dave Bulmer and Amanda Broom of Chard Fire Station in Avishayes Road with the apparent seemingly obvious closure of the existing police station in Silver Street.

Councillor Amanda Broom, who was among those who met with the Police and Crime Commissioner during the visit to Chard, said: "I originally wrote to the PCC in August this year when there was talk of the police station closing in Chard.

"As well as discussing the policing levels in Chard, we also talked about the challenges faced today with hidden crime – cybercrime, cuckooing and domestic abuse.

"We also talked about the importance of breaking the stigma around mental health – something we can all help with by talking about it."

Ms Mountstevens also held a drop-in surgery at the award-winning Eleos Café in Fore Street, Chard, where she was able to speak with members of the public and give them a copy of the new Police and Crime Plans.

Town crier takes on ale-tasting tour

CHARD town crier Stuart Cumming once again carried out the annual task of sampling the local ale at pubs and clubs.

Stuart takes his honorary title of the Office of Ale Taster very seriously, especially as its main role is to make sure, on behalf of all Chard residents, that the town's hostellers are serving ale of the proper taste, colour and "good head".

The town crier was joined by a happy bunch of fellow ale-tasters who were able to pontificate about the state of Chard's ales as they went on a sampling tour of the town's pubs and clubs on Friday, December 9th.

The tradition of ale-tasting goes back to times when water would be contaminated and undrinkable. Part of the town crier's historic responsibilities would be to enter pubs and demand a pint of the landlord's best beer.

He would then go through a tasting process designed to find out if the publican had been watering down his beer – and therefore putting his customers at risk.

Following the opening drink at the Phoenix Hotel the happy group – who got merrier as the night went on – visited the Bell and Crown, The Cerdic, The Dolphin, Happy Return, King's Head, Conservative Club and the Choughs Hotel.

Stuart entered each establishment wielding his bell and bellowed "bring forth a pint of your finest ale that I might drink and taste and judge its quality".

He savoured every drop, and after declaring that the beer had a "good colour, a good nose, a good head and is fit for people to drink" he presented the licensee with a sprig of evergreen to pin above the pub's door to tell visitors that it was a "fine drinking establishment".

Among Stuart's fellow ale-tasters was the Mayor of Chard, Councillor Dave Bulmer, and Deputy Mayor, Councillor Garry Shortland. The mayor also used the night to raise funds for his chosen charities of the year – the League of Friends of Chard Hospital and the First Responders – with a collection making just under £250.

Councillor Bulmer said: "I'm delighted with this amount of money raised and would like to thank everyone who contributed."

Stuart has been carrying out the ancient ritual for the past few years after the idea was first suggested by Yeovil town crier Bruce Trigger, who told him that landlords were duty bound to give a town crier a pint of beer.

Also joining Stuart on Friday night was the Mayor and Mayoress of Yeovil, Councillor Darren Shutler and his wife Anna.

Work progressing well at revamped leisure and entertainment venue

WORK on the reinvented and refurbished Westlands Yeovil leisure and entertainment venue is progressing well.

South Somerset District Council has said that the first elements of the project will see the new sport and fitness centre open on January 3rd and the main business, conference and entertainment centre will be back in business on March 27th.

The venue closed in late 2015, but was saved by the council when it signed a 30-year lease for the building and grounds in Westbourne Close, Yeovil, from its owners.

The sport and fitness centre will provide a range of the very latest LifeFitness equipment, an extensive programme of classes and a fully refurbished sports hall and squash courts.

A council spokesman said: "It will be ideal for those who want to kick-start 2017 and join the gym in the New Year."

In response to popular demand the venue – now under the management of South Somerset District Council – is to keep the name Westlands.

The new logo has been inspired by the former AgustaWestland logo and tailored to compliment The Octagon Theatre branding. The Yeovil theatre is also owned and managed by the council.

Opening of the business, conference and entertainment centre will follow in late March 2017 and promises some exciting performances.

CBeebies star Justin Fletcher – aka Mr Tumble – will appear in April and German comedian, Henning When, star of QI, Live at the Apollo and Would I Lie to You, is confirmed for May 2017.

Hospice healthcare assistant raising funds ahead of London Marathon

A HEALTHCARE assistant at St Margaret's Hospice in Somerset is selling a charity calendar, which will go towards her overall fundraising effort for the hospice, including taking part in next year's London Marathon.

With the help of numerous staff from the hospice Karen Mitchell has been able to create the fun-filled calendar to help with her fundraising.

The calendars are priced £5 each and available from the reception at St Margaret's in Yeovil and the hospice at Taunton.

"I have had the privilege of working for St Margaret's Hospice as part of the nursing team for the past 13 years doing a job I love," said Karen.

"Our hospice provides care and support to our patients and loved ones facing life-limiting illnesses as an in-patient or in their own home.

"Most of our funding comes from fundraising, legacies and donations.

"I recently reached a milestone birthday and felt I needed a challenge – this being the London Marathon – while raising much-needed funds for St Margaret's.

"I am not a born runner, but I am determined to finish the marathon even if my supporters have gone to bed!"

Anybody wanting to sponsor Karen on her marathon challenge can do so online at www.justgiving.com/fundraising/karen-howard3

Handmade cards raise funds for hospice

FUNDS for St Margaret's Somerset Hospice have been raised by the selling of unique hand-made greetings cards for all occasions at RNAS Yeovilton.

Card-maker Liz Parsons, of Yeovil, started raising money for the hospice around ten years ago after her family discovered at first-hand the amazing work which goes on at St Margaret's.

Christine Jones, who works at RNAS Yeovilton, was visiting the Old Mill accountants and financial planners in Yeovil when she saw some of Liz's beautifully-crafted cards in the reception which were being sold in aid of St Margaret's Hospice.

"I thought they were really good and asked about who had made them," said Christine. "I was put in touch with Liz and it went from there."

Liz, who used to work at Old Mill, said she took great pleasure from making the cards and helping to raise money for the hospice – so was thrilled when Christine got in touch.

"The cards have been very popular with people out at Yeovilton," said Christine. "Although we've only been asking for donations some people have been really generous.

"The cards have come in very useful as well – it's surprising how many people have come and bought a last-minute card for somebody."

A total of £132.80 was raised at RNAS Yeovilton and was topped up with a further £20 donation.

Children sing at Rotary's annual festive concert

CHARD Methodist Church was packed to the rafters last week as local residents, including the Mayor, Councillor Dave Bulmer, celebrated Christmas at the annual Chard Rotary Club Carols by Candlelight Service.

After being welcomed by the Reverend Anna Flindell, the congregation joined in a selection of well-loved Christmas carols. They were also treated to a medley of Christmas songs from the children of Redstart Primary School (pictured above).

The evening was organised to raise funds for the Children's Hospice South West, one of club president Barry Gibbs' charities for the year, and following an appeal by fellow Rotarian Robert Rollings, a total of £315 was raised.

A spokesperson for the club said: "Chard Rotary Club would like to thank everyone for their support both in raising this sum and throughout the year. We wish everyone in Chard and the surrounding area a very happy Christmas and a healthy and peaceful 2017."

Winsham pupils complete marathon Christmas carol singing challenge

WINISHAM Primary School pupils recently took part in a festive challenge to sing 100 carols in one day.

The pupils were challenged by chairman of the school governors, Gill Spence, to the task to help raise funds towards new IT equipment and the pupils and staff rose to the occasion.

Mrs Hallett arranged a set of 20 carols which pupils sang five times throughout the day at different venues in the village. Pupils donned their Christmas hats and started by visiting the residents of Davies Close; they crammed themselves into the village shop and then then visited the Jubilee Hall Café. By lunchtime the pupils had raised £120.

A spokesman for the school said: "The school pupils, staff, parents and governors would like to thank everybody for donating.

"In the spirit of Christmas if anyone reading this wishes to donate anything towards IT equipment for the children, any donations would be gratefully received please send it to the school. Thank you."

School hosts annual Christmas fair

THE festive spirit was in full swing as The Friends of Chard School held their annual Christmas fair. On the day, guests enjoyed live music, mulled wine, mince pies, crafts, cakes, children's games and were even lucky enough to get a visit from Father Christmas himself in his special grotto, accompanied by elves and reindeer (pictured above).

Poppy Appeal raises almost £15,000

THE Poppy Appeal organiser for Chard has announced that this year's collection has raised nearly £15,000.

Maryanne Adams announced on Sunday that the final Poppy Appeal collecting box had been collected and counted.

"The total raised so far is £14,726.57," she said on social media.

Councillor Amanda Broom, a member of Chard Town Council and South Somerset District Council, said: "What an amazing amount. Fantastic."

The Chard branch of the Royal British Legion would like to thank everyone who contributed to this year's Poppy Appeal and for their continued support.

CHILDREN from Manor Court School in Chard entertained family members and friends in the year's nativity. Fifty-seven children from the school's foundation classes, Hedgehogs and Squirrels, took part in the traditional nativity. Julie Bulgin, foundation teacher said: "The children were brilliant and worked really hard to learn all the songs and actions." THE Friends of Crewkerne Railway Station's Christmas open day went down well with passengers, featuring both history and current topics.

Passengers entering the ticket hall and waiting room on December 10th were greeted by the friends and were asked to join the organisation or support it by buying a raffle ticket.

The friends were also there to answer questions and present an exhibition about Crewkerne-related railway history.

More information about the friends' group is available at www.crewkernetown.org/friend-sofcrewkernestation

Pictured above, the exhibition display boards had everybody's attention and, right, Father Christmas is greeted by one of the elves as he disembarks the train from London.

■ YOUNG footballers and their leaders gathered in church to celebrate 30 years of Merriott Youth Football. The club holds an annual carol service in All Saints Church, and had particular reason to celebrate this year. Club chairman Paul Lawrence said the club was started by Monica and Dave Hayden, who are still involved – Monica as secretary and Dave as honorary president. There has been considerable growth over the 30 years. Dave and Monica started with 12 boys in 1986, which has increased to 330 boys and girls today plus a ladies and a men's team.

Christmas market a hit despite weather

THE third Crewkerne Christmas Market was hailed a success by traders and shoppers alike, despite some very inclement weather on December 10th.

Although the amount of people at the market was down, those that visited were definitely buying, according to one trader.

The market boasted a good range of stalls offering gift ideas, decorations, food and drink. An added attraction was the Crewkerne Crewners who sang at the top of the Victoria Hall steps and brought a very festive atmosphere to the whole event.

Laura Gowers, deputy clerk for Crewkerne Town Council, said: "We would like to thank all the stall holders and shoppers who attended as the weather forecast wasn't good for the day."

"We were also really pleased that the Crewners braved the rain to sing Christmas carols for us."

"This is only the third year that the town council has organised the Christmas market and I would like to build on this year's success and see the market bigger and better next year."

■ DAY TRIP: Tom Wade, Ryan Garland, Louie Williams and Joshua Gill with the iconic dinosaur in the foyer of the National History Museum

Wadham students explore museums

YEAR 9 and 10 students from Wadham School travelled to London for 'Alternative Timetable Day' and split their day between the Science Museum and the Natural History Museum.

Casts from Pompeii and golden strands of Pele's hair were admired, moving dinosaur models were feared and interactive energy displays were played with.

Brad Mace of the Year 9 humanities class, said: "We enjoyed the interactive displays and variety of interesting topics - the World War I medicine display was fascinating."

Teacher Mr Wales added: "A few hours in each museum was nowhere near enough, but the brief taste of each will hopefully inspire future investigations of both."

A family run business established for over 50 years running Quality Residential Retirement Parks in the South West

All invited to join weekly health walks

SOUTH Somerset District Council are encouraging Ilminster residents to take up the opportunity to join the town's Health Walks.

The walks, which take place on Tuesdays at 10.30am, last approximately one and a half hours and help to build confidence, increase mobility and maintain each walkers' health.

The walks start from Tesco on Shudrick Lane. Catherine Devonshire, healthy lifestyles officer at South Somerset District Council, explained more about the benefits of health walks: "Regular walking has been shown to reduce the risk of chronic illnesses, such as heart disease, type 2 diabetes, asthma, stroke and some cancers.

"It is also a great way to meet new people and explore the beautiful countryside we have on our doorstep.

"Health walks are increasingly popular in the district and to make it easier for residents to find their nearest walk we now produce a directory three times a year. The current directory includes 14 different walks stretching from Chard to Wincanton and caters for a variety of abilities."

Sylvia Seal, portfolio holder for leisure and culture at South Somerset District Council added: "The fact that our scheme has received Walking for Health accreditation means that people can take part in our walks with confidence.

"Our health walks are sustainable and enable people to explore their local countryside whilst becoming more active and sociable in a safe environment."

Santa pays a visit to Neroche

■ FATHER Christmas asks Ben and Holly what they would like for Christmas and, below, the school's choir opened the fayre with carols

Christmas got into full swing at Neroche Primary School in Broadway, near Ilminster, as the pupils welcomed a very special visitor – Father Christmas.

Santa arrived at the school's Christmas fayre and settled into his luxury shepherd's hut grotto.

The children and families were treated to meeting Santa and his elves and a photographer was present to capture the moment for each child.

Zac from Year 3 said: "The grotto was amazing, Santa said his reindeer would come later to take him back to Lapland!"

Families from Ilminster and the surrounding villages were treated to Neroche School's junior children opening the Christmas fayre with carols. The school hall was filled with stalls and games for the community to enjoy.

Neroche headteacher Connel Boyle commented: "I want to thank the community and Blackdown Shepherd's Huts for joining us and helping us organise such a memorable event for our children.

"We are still adding up our funds raised, but it looks like we have raised over £1,000 this year for the school. Happy Christmas everyone!"

12 Christmas Safety Tips

RoSPA offers simple tips for a safe and happy Christmas: www.rospa.com

CHRISTMAS is a time when your home is likely to be full of people and it is in the excitement of the season that accidents can easily happen. But one of the good things about Christmas is that there are typically more people around to supervise the children and, with a little more care and forward planning, most accidents could be avoided.

Follow these 12 safety tips to help prevent your festivities being cut short by a trip to casualty:

1. Make sure you buy children's gifts for the correct age group and from reputable sources that comply with standards (e.g. The Toys (Safety) Regulations 2011)

2. Remember to buy batteries for toys that need them - that way you won't be tempted to remove batteries from smoke alarms

3. Look out for small items that could pose a choking hazard to young children, including parts that have fallen off toys or from Christmas trees, button batteries and burst balloons

4. Keep decorations and cards away from fires and other heat sources such as light fittings. Don't leave burning candles unattended, make sure you put them out before going to bed and do not put candles on Christmas trees

5. If you have old Christmas lights, seriously consider buying new ones, which will meet much higher safety standards, keep the lights switched off until the Christmas tree is decorated, don't let children play with lights (some have swallowed the bulbs), and remember to switch off the lights when going out of the house or going to bed

6. Remember, Christmas novelties are not toys, even if they resemble them, and they do not have to comply with toy safety regulations. Give careful thought to where you display them, for example, place them high up on Christmas trees where they are out of the reach of young hands

7. Give yourself enough time to prepare and cook Christmas dinner to avoid hot fat, boiling water and sharp knife accidents that come from rushing, and keep anyone not helping with dinner out of the kitchen. Wipe up any spills quickly

8. Have scissors handy to open packaging, so you're not tempted to use a knife, and have screwdrivers at the ready to assemble toys

9. Beware of trailing cables and wires in the rush to connect new gadgets and appliances, and always read instructions

10. Falls are the most common accidents so try to keep clutter to a minimum. Make sure stairs are well-lit and free from obstacles, especially if you have guests

11. Plan New Year fireworks parties well in advance and follow the Firework Safety Code

12. Do not drink and drive, and plan long journeys so you won't be driving tired.

Devon Appliances

DEVON Appliances was formed in 2013 as a sister company to PB Home Solutions of Seaton in Devon by Paul Bromfield, PB supply and install leading brands of kitchens, bathrooms & bedrooms throughout East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset. This was the natural step to take as more and more customers were being supplied "White Goods" and appliances from PB's showroom in Fore Street. Consequently, a new Devon Appliances showroom was opened on Fosseway Park, just off Harepath Road in Seaton.

In 2015 Devon Appliances became members of Euronics thus being able to expand their product range enabling them to offer customers a greater range of appliances together with stable prices.

Devon Appliances hold a full range of white goods from major brands like Bosch, Neff, Siemens, Zanussi, Hoover, Blomberg, iRobot, Lec, Beko Etc and offer an installation and removal service together with free local delivery.

To get a better idea of what Devon Appliances can offer why not visit the showroom in Fosseway Park and have a look at our comprehensive range of products or visit our website at devonappliances.co.uk.

5 tips for better storage

If finding room for the Christmas presents you received seems impossible, check out these ideas for increasing your home's storage space

1. ONE room where storage is essential is the bedroom, and while many of us dream of a walk-in wardrobe, most homes don't have space for one. The next best thing is built-in wardrobes, as they provide acres of space and are a more flexible storage solution than freestanding wardrobes. Fitted storage is particularly useful in awkwardly shaped rooms, such as loft bedrooms, where built-in wardrobes can make the most of the space, especially in the eaves. They are usually made to measure, so all the available space is used, and the interiors can be customised with drawers, shelves and hanging rails, etc, depending on your needs. The main downside is the price - fitted wardrobes typically cost thousands of pounds from a specialist company, although a carpenter will often make them for a lot less.

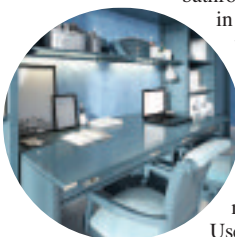

2. If your bedroom already has fitted wardrobes but the doors belong to another decade, simply replace them with more up-to-date ones (as long as the wardrobe interiors are fine). It's easy to get standard-sized or made-to-measure replacement wardrobe doors, especially online, giving you a great new look for a fraction of the price of new wardrobes. Alternatively, get a carpenter to make new doors for you.

3. In the kitchen, lack of storage can drive you to distraction. A larder is ideal, but may not be an option in a small kitchen, where it's really important to have clever storage and a well-designed layout. Kitchen showrooms and DIY stores can offer ingenious ways of making more of the space, including pull-out work-tops, pull-out shelves/racks in larder units, carousels so you can easily access the back of corner units, and tall wall units that provide extra storage in kitchens with higher ceilings.

4. Away from the kitchen, there's potential to create storage space all over the home. Ideas include turning an under the stairs space into a cupboard, window seats with built-in storage, stairs that contain drawers, a vanity unit for extra bathroom storage, and built-in bookshelves and cupboards in alcoves; even a desk. With a bespoke home office, the space can be tailor-made for your computer, printer, files and more.

5. Some of the best storage is, of course, your home's loft. If you need to access it often, fitting a large loft hatch with a built-in ladder will make it much easier. You'll also need to board the loft (if it's not already boarded) before storing things up there. Use sheets of chipboard, or chipboard loft boards, which slot together. 'Soft' insulation (in rolls), such as mineral wool, shouldn't be compressed, though, so use loft legs to raise the floor level above the insulation - the recommended depth for mineral wool is 27cm. Another option is to lay rolls of insulation between the joists, but rigid insulation over them and chipboard on top - some rigid insulation has a chipboard top layer.

Manor Antiques Restorations

MANOR Antiques Restorations is a family run business with 20 years experience in the restoration and preservation of antique and period furniture.

The traditional craftsman's skills that they can offer range from veneering, marquetry, parquetry, cabinet making, wood turning, French polishing and sympathetic repairs, from the smallest scratch to the complete restoration of a piece of furniture.

In Manor Antiques' fully equipped work shop they are able to take on commissions for pieces of new or reproduction furniture made to the customers requirements.

They have an extensive portfolio which shows the high standard of work which is available for customers to look at to see the transformation of a restored piece of furniture. Manor Antiques also offer a carpentry and joinery service with items ranging from an ornamental oak front door, interior doors made from hard or soft wood, to fancy oak or pine plate racks. Their range is extensive and exclusive to your requirements. They can be found at Ellishayes, Coombe Raleigh which is on the Honiton to Dunkeswell road.

Eden Garden Fencing & Landscaping

AT EDEN Garden Fencing and Landscaping based in Seaton, Devon we have been building and installing quality Fencing, Gates and Decking, along with Landscaping, for some 15 years. This makes finding a Fencing Contractor simple by providing for all clients' requirements, large and small locally. The timber products side of Landscapers, Eden Garden Developments, offers a friendly, professional, integrated service and the Seaton, Devon base covers a 30 mile radius.

A timely example, given the present gusty conditions, is Garden Fencing, where this can be replaced or repaired, depending upon condition and the budget available. This can be either Close Board, Panel (with or without Trellis), Post and Rail or Picket Fencing. Eden Garden Fencing and Landscaping also supply and fit Gates (see insets). Whilst we take pride in installing robust and durable fencing products, "cost leadership" is still at the forefront of the business, whilst keeping quality and the principles of design foremost. Much of the work can be done during Autumn and Winter when the ground is less compacted and this time is also perfect for renovating the garden generally. So by Spring many garden improvements can be ready to be enjoyed.

There is now a dedicated Timber Products website, www.edengardenfencing.co.uk, giving examples of the range and quality of workmanship. Additionally, information can be obtained by calling 01297 23596 (mobile 07977 415446) or visiting the general web pages at www.al-environmental.com

FESTIVE Television and Christmas Movies

Despicable Me
11.20am ITV1 Christmas Eve

IF you're looking forward to snuggling up in front of the TV this Christmas, look no further than our Festive View for an extensive guide to all of your holiday viewing.

There are all of the usual Yuletide offerings including the soaps vying for top spot on Christmas day and the Doctor Who Christmas special, which this year will see the time lord travel to the Big Apple for a monstrous adventure.

There are also a plethora of family films, to enthrall both young and old with animated classics, fantasy favourites and awesome action movies to entertain. We have chosen five festive family classics to see you through as well as our top ten television picks over the holiday period.

Christmas Eve 11:20am Despicable Me ★★★★★ Join super-criminal Gru as he plots to steal the moon with the help of his adorable assistants the minions.

Christmas day at 3:10pm Frozen ★★★★★ Sing-along with the now infamous theme tune for many wannabe princesses and "Let it Go", as you follow the epic Disney fable of Anna and Elsa.

Boxing Day 4:10pm Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban ★★★★★ Harry Potter starts his third year at Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry, with the threat of an escaped Death Eater on the loose.

27th December Raiders of the Lost Ark ★★★★★ The first in the action franchise, starring Harrison Ford, sees the archeologist brave an ancient booby-trapped temple in Peru to retrieve a golden idol.

TOP TEN TO WATCH THIS CHRISTMAS

1. ONE of the staples of Channel Four's annual Christmas schedule has been the animated version of Raymond Briggs' The Snowman (C4, Christmas Eve, 4:45pm) since its premiere in 1982, but this year there's also a new short film which no doubt will be repeated for many years to come.

We're Going On a Bear Hunt (C4, Christmas Eve, 7:30pm) is based on the hit bedtime book by Michael Rosen and illustrated by Helen Oxenbury. The half-hour show has been produced by the same team behind The Snowman and its 2012 sequel The Snowman and The Snowdog (C4, Christmas Eve, 5:15pm).

2. SAYING farewell to the Beeb before it finally packs up its soggy bottoms and heads off to Channel Four, is The Great British Bake Off. Two Christmas specials (BBC1, Christmas Day, 4:45pm & Boxing Day, 7:00pm) will see Mary, Mel and Sue together with Paul for one last time. Each instalment sees the show welcome back four bakers from the past to tackle some suitably festive baking challenges.

3. ALTHOUGH there wasn't a new series of Doctor Who this year, Christmas just wouldn't be Christmas without a visit from The Doctor (well, not since 2005 anyway) and you can catch-up with him in The Return Of Doctor Mysterio (BBC1, Christmas Day, 5:45pm).

The Snowman and The Snowdog
5.15pm Channel4 Christmas Eve

Peter Capaldi's Doctor has to save New York City from mind swapping aliens, with the help of Matt Lucas (who returns as Nardole from last year's Christmas special).

4. IF YOU like your comedy with a few darker undertones, then you'll no doubt be a fan of Steve Pemberton and Reece Shearsmith's macabre Inside No 9. A festive special - The Devil At Christmas (BBC2, Dec 27th, 10:00pm) (so maybe not that festive?) - guest stars Rula Lenska and Jessica Raine, who find out first hand of the Austrian legend of Krampus (think the exact opposite of Santa). Set in a snow lodge in 1977, it sounds like it might have a A Tales Of The Unexpected vibe - and might just be the best thing on telly this Christmas.

To Walk Invisible 9.00pm BBC1 29th December

5. HAS no one made a film about The Brontë sisters before now? It seems strange it's taken this long for the story of literature's greatest group of sisters - Charlotte (Jane Eyre), Emily (Wuthering Heights) and Anne (The Tenant Of Wildfell Hall) - to come to the screen, but it looks worth the wait. To Walk Invisible (BBC1, Dec 29th, 9:00pm) reveals the extraordinary story behind their traumatic family life, which no doubt contributed to the creation of their literary masterpieces.

6. THERE were a number of music biographies launched in to run-up to Christmas, but the one everyone's talking about is Bruce Springsteen's. Tying-in with his book, Born To Run, is Bruce Springsteen: In His Words (C4, Dec 29th, 10:35pm) where The Boss talks about his acclaimed tome, as well as reflecting on his career and what motivates him to continue to tour.

7. ONE of the finest collaborations between Roald Dahl and illustrator Quentin Blake was the 1982 collection of poems, Revolting Rhymes, which retold six classic fairytales in the way only Dahl knew how. Dominic West leads the voice cast in these two new animated films, bringing the 'alternative' versions of these classic stories to life.

The first film (BBC1, Boxing Day, 6:30pm) sees young Snow White and Red Riding Hood become lifelong friends as Snow White takes on the might of the wicked Queen, whilst Red is called home to deal with a pair of hungry wolves - one who's eaten her grandma and then dressed in her clothes, while the other can't help himself from eating some unsuspecting pigs. The second film is at the same time the following evening.

8. THOSE of a certain age will no doubt remember Mike Read's Pop Quiz with either fondness or - if they were a bit too cool for school - abject hatred. I, for one, have happy memories of those Saturday evenings watching the then Saturday Superstore host teasing the biggest music stars of the day with some particularly tricky questions. And, somewhat bizarrely, Pop Quiz is back - and so is Mike Read.

Nostalgic 80s fun aplenty awaits with the first of two new episodes on December 28th (BBC Four, 9:30pm). Guests on the new run include Toyah Willcox, Nick Heyward (Haircut 100), Carol Decker (T'Pau), Tom Bailey (Thompson Twins), Andy McCluskey (OMD), Steve Norman (Spandau Ballet), David Grant (Linx), Cheryl Baker and Jay Aston (Bucks Fizz), Ranking Roger (The Beat), Mari Wilson and Lee John (Imagination).

9. FOLLOWING on from last year's adaptation of And Then There Were None, the Beeb continues its new tradition of Agatha Christie at Christmas with a two-part take on The Witness For The Prosecution (BBC1, Boxing Day, 9:00pm & Dec 27th, 9:00pm).

It's refreshing to see new versions of Christie's whodunnits that don't involve either Miss Marple or Hercule Poirot - there's far more to the best-selling author of all time's canon than just the elderly spinster and the Belgian sleuth. And although this tale of greed and wounded souls may not be typical festive fare, it could well be a Christmas treat all the same.

It's 1920s London and a murder - brutal and bloodthirsty - has stained the plush carpets of a handsome London townhouse. The all-star cast includes Toby Jones (Detectorists, Marvellous, Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy), Andrea Riseborough (Bloodline, Birdman, Oblivion), Kim Cattrall (Sensitive Skin, Sex And The City) and David Haig (The Thick Of It, Mo, My Boy Jack).

10. NOT so much a Christmas highlight - it's not actually on until the New Year - but Sherlock's back! And not with a one-off special either but three all new episodes (yes, series four is finally here after a three year wait). Little is known about the first episode but there are a clues aplenty in the teaser trailer, with Sherlock and Watson sitting across from one another silently, surrounded by floodwater. All will be revealed in The Six Thatchers (BBC1, New Year's Day, 8:30pm).

Recipes

CHOCOLATE ORANGE

HAZELNUT CAKE

INGREDIENTS:

- 175ml light-coloured olive oil, plus extra for greasing
- 140g blanched hazelnuts
- 100ml orange juice, plus zest 1 orange
- 140g self-raising flour
- ½ tsp baking powder
- 50g cocoa powder
- 3 large eggs
- 175g light brown muscovado sugar
- For the candied orange slices
- 300g golden caster sugar
- 1 large orange cut into 3mm/1/8in slices

TO DECORATE

- 75ml orange juice
- 100g dairy free dark chocolate
- 50g blanched hazelnuts, toasted
- 1 tsp edible gold powder

METHOD:

Make the candied orange slices a day ahead if you can. Put the sugar and 300ml water in a medium saucepan and bring to the boil. Reduce to a gentle simmer, add the orange slices and cook for 1 hr-1 hr 10 mins or until the pith is translucent, turning occasionally. Line a baking tray with parchment. Carefully remove the slices from the syrup, place on the prepared tray and set aside to dry (at least 8 hrs) before cutting in half. Reserve the syrup. Heat oven to 180C/160C fan/gas 4. Lightly grease a loaf tin (mine was 900g) with olive oil and line with a strip of baking parchment. Grind the hazelnuts in a food processor until they resemble coarse breadcrumbs (do not blitz them too much or they will become oily), then add to a bowl along with the orange zest, a pinch of salt and the rest of the dry ingredients. Mix together until evenly combined.

Pour the oil and the orange juice into a jug and mix together. Put the eggs and sugar in a tabletop mixer or large bowl and whisk together for 5-10 mins or until the mixture has tripled in volume and holds a ribbon on the surface when the beaters are lifted out. Slowly pour the oil mixture into the egg mixture and fold together until combined.

Add the flour mixture to the egg mixture in 3 or 4 additions, folding together until combined. You can't sieve this mixture over the eggs because of the hazelnuts, but try not to dump the flour in one place – you need to be careful and fold the batter to retain its lightness. Once fully combined, pour the batter into the prepared loaf tin and bake for 50-55 mins or until a skewer inserted into the centre of the cake comes out clean.

Prick the top of the cake all over, then pour over 5 tbsp of the reserved orange syrup. Cool in the tin for 15 mins, then turn out onto a wire rack to cool completely. Trim the top of the cake (keep this for a mini trifle) and turn out, cut-side down, onto a serving platter.

To decorate, pour the orange juice into a small pan and bring to a simmer. Put the chocolate in a small bowl, pour the orange juice over and stir together to form a smooth ganache. Set aside in the fridge until thickened, about 20-25 mins. Tip the hazelnuts into a small bowl and add the gold powder with a dash of water, stirring together to coat. Put the ganache in a piping bag fitted with a small round piping tip. Pipe in peaks over the top of the cake, decorating with the golden hazelnuts and the orange slices. Will keep for up to 3 days in an airtight container.

BLOODY MARY

SCRAMBLED EGGS AND

SMOKED SALMON

INGREDIENTS:

- 4 eggs
- 2 tbsp milk
- ½ tsp Tabasco plus extra to serve (optional)
- ½ tsp Worcestershire sauce, plus extra to serve (optional)

- 1 tsp olive oil
- 100g cherry tomatoes
- 1 tbsp finely chopped chives
- 100g smoked salmon sliced
- 4 slices whole meal bread, toasted and buttered
- ½ lemon, sliced into wedges

METHOD:

Beat together the eggs, milk, Tabasco, Worcestershire sauce and some seasoning in a jug. Heat the oil in a large non-stick pan over a low heat and pour in the egg mix. Cook, stirring, until it is done around the edges and slightly runny in the middle. Then tip in the tomatoes and warm through for 1 min until the eggs have finished cooking.

Top the toast with the scrambled eggs and chives, and place the smoked salmon on the side with a wedge of lemon to squeeze over. Drizzle over extra Tabasco and Worcestershire sauce, if you like it with an extra kick.

5 TIPS FOR BETTER STORAGE

By Julia Gray, Press Association

1. One room where storage is essential is the bedroom, and while many of us dream of a walk-in wardrobe, most homes don't have space for one. The next best thing is built-in wardrobes, as they provide acres of space and are a more flexible storage solution than freestanding wardrobes. Fitted storage is particularly useful in awkwardly shaped rooms, such as loft bedrooms, where built-in wardrobes can make the most of the space, especially in the eaves. They are usually made to measure, so all the available space is used, and the interiors can be customised with drawers, shelves and hanging rails, etc, depending on your needs. The main downside is the price - fitted wardrobes typically cost thousands of pounds from a specialist company, although a carpenter will often make them for a lot less.

2. If your bedroom already has fitted wardrobes but the doors belong to another decade, simply replace them with more up-to-date ones (as long as the wardrobe interiors are fine). It's easy to get standard-sized or made-to-measure replacement wardrobe doors, especially online, giving you a great new look for a fraction of the price of new wardrobes. Alternatively, get a carpenter to make new doors for you.

3. In the kitchen, lack of storage can drive you to distraction. A larder is ideal, but may not be an option in a small kitchen, where it's really important to have clever storage and a well-designed layout. Kitchen showrooms and DIY stores can offer ingenious ways of making more of the space, including pull-out worktops, pull-out shelves/racks in larder units, carousels so you can easily access the back of corner units, and tall wall units that provide extra storage in kitchens with higher ceilings.

4. Away from the kitchen, there's potential to create storage space all over the home. Ideas include turning an understairs space into a cupboard, window seats with built-in storage, stairs that contain drawers, a vanity unit for extra bathroom storage, and built-in bookshelves and cupboards in alcoves; even a desk. With a bespoke home office, the space can be tailor-made for your computer, printer, files and more.

5. Some of the best storage is, of course, your home's loft. If you need to access it often, fitting a large loft hatch with a built-in ladder will make it much easier. You'll also need to board the loft (if it's not already boarded) before storing things up there. Use sheets of chipboard, or chipboard loft boards, which slot together. 'Soft' insulation (in rolls), such as mineral wool, shouldn't be compressed, though, so use loft legs to raise the floor level above the insulation - the recommended depth for mineral wool is 27cm. Another option is to lay rolls of insulation between the joists, but rigid insulation over them and chipboard on top - some rigid insulation has a chipboard top layer.

PRODUCTS OF THE WEEK

Make a DIYer happy this Christmas with the Stanley Cushion Grip Screwdriver Set (£24.99, Screwfix), 10 top-of-the-range cross-headed and flat-headed screwdrivers in different sizes. They have soft-grip handles for comfort and control, but smooth, domed ends for fast rotation. The magnetic tips make picking up screws easy, while the steel bars reduce the risk of the tips breaking. These screwdrivers come in a rigid carry case, so it's easy to keep them together and see if one is missing.

If you're trying to get someone into DIY in 2017, the Forge Steel General Hand Tool Kit (£29.99, Screwfix) is the perfect prezzie. This excellent 55-piece starter kit contains all the hand tools needed for everyday DIY, including a hammer, tape measure, spirit level, mini hacksaw and adjustable wrench. It comes in a sturdy carry bag and is great value.

HOW-TO TIP

If you're having your home rewired and want to add decorative ceiling roses around some of the ceiling lights, ensure you fit them before the electricians are second-fixed. This enables the electrician to fit the plastic ceiling rose on top of the decorative rose, giving easy access to the wiring if there's ever a problem with the light.

Twelfth Night jazz

THE FIRST concert of the year at Ilminster Arts Centre takes place on Twelfth Night, and promises to get 2017 off to a vintage start, with the return of jazz pianist Mike Denham on Friday, January 6th. Mike is a hugely popular performer at the Arts Centre and this concert will take the form of one of his entertaining 'SpeakEasy' nights of vintage jazz.

Joining Mike for this journey back in jazz time is clarinetist Mike Snelling. Weymouth-born Mike took up clarinet at the tender age of 10 and he has been a fixture on the UK traditional jazz scene for many years, originally playing with Alex Welsh, and latterly with Chris Barber between 2006-9. Over the years he has worked alongside many of the world's finest players, including Michael Andrew, "Peanuts" Hucko, Ralph Sutton, Bud Freeman, Buddy Tate, Bob Wilbur and Kenny Davern. Together the two Mikes will entertain the Arts Centre audience with a foot tapping, nostalgia soaked trip through the jazz classics of yesterday.

Mike Denham's SpeakEasy comes to Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, January 6th at 8pm. Tickets are £12, and a pre-show supper is available for £14 at 7pm but must be pre-booked. For more details and to book call 01460 54973 or visit www.themeetinghouse.org.uk

Prizewinners on parade

THE FIRST exhibition of the year at Ilminster Arts Centre celebrates the success of the artists who were the prizewinners of the Ilminster Open Competition in 2016. As part of their prize, the artists won the chance to exhibit at the Arts Centre and now their moment in the spotlight has arrived.

Heading the bill is the overall winner Jane Burden, a West Dorset based artist whose mixed media textile and ceramic pieces pack a powerful emotional punch. Her site specific commissions and exhibitions have taken her all over England and her return to Ilminster Arts Centre is keenly anticipated. Former ad-man Peter Monkcom won second prize jointly with Charo Ritchie and both artists will be showing their latest work. Peter (who in his earlier career created the legendary 'Captain Birdseye' of fishfinger fame) uses found objects to construct witty 'assemblages'. Charo is a botanical illustrator who captures the natural world in painstaking watercolour detail. Sue Smallwood, the winner of the 3D prize will also be showing her new pieces - her enigmatic ceramic sculpture 'Jani' was one of the talking points of the 2016 Open. West Somerset based artist Leo Davey won the highly coveted 'Visitors' Choice' award and his highly accomplished evocative paintings will once again grace the Arts Centre's walls.

The eclectic and varied line-up is completed by the three Highly Commended prizewinners: wildlife painter Sue Allen, mixed media artist Imogen Bittner and environmental painter Gary Cook, whose work fuses traditional painting and hard-hitting graphics.

The show opens on January 3rd, running until the 21st, and will be a welcome opportunity to revisit and explore in depth the work of a talented and diverse group of local artists. The exhibition is open 9.30am-4.30pm Monday to Friday, and 9.30am-2.30pm Saturdays. Free entry.

OUR NEW SHOWBIZ COLUMN

All the right lines but not necessarily in the right order!

I've spent much of the last few weeks desperately trying to learn my lines for the imminent pantomime, which I'm part of in Axminster in January.

I haven't got very many, but my rapidly aging brain seems increasingly unable to memorise even the simplest of phrases. Former X Factor finalist-turned television presenter Stacey Solomon has faced a media storm this week after suffering from the same affliction and actually went onstage for her first performance of Dick Whittington in Milton Keynes with a clipboard.

I have performed with many local legends, some of which have, at times virtually rewritten parts of shows, by missing out huge swathes of the dialogue, thus leaving other cast members mystified as to how to save the story. The great Bill Street (of Lyme Regis Pantomime fame), before his retirement from the stage, was a master at performing all of the right lines, but not necessarily in the right order.

I witnessed a plethora of professional pantomime masters this week when I attended the gala opening night of Cinderella at the London Palladium. The mayhem maestros included Paul O'Grady, Amanda Holden, Julian Clary and Lee Mead in the fabulously festive show, which cleverly entwined musical theatre references and big budget effects, while keeping the essence of a village pantomime.

The number of celebrities in the auditorium equally matched the number of stars on stage. It's always nice to see a few famous faces, but you do become a bit blasé, when the same ones turn up to everything (Christopher Biggins and Gaby Roslin would probably attend the opening of an envelope!).

There are still some who I feel excited about meeting and I was thrilled to be sitting behind the Krankies, with Lord Andrew Lloyd Webber just a little way in front. There are few celebrities these days that I would be genuinely impressed by, although if I were to meet someone like Barbara Streisand I'd probably go a bit gaga.

I also find the different levels of celebrity really interesting. For example, I've met Brain May on a number of occasions, but many of my colleagues in Lyme Regis don't recognise the legendary Queen guitarist, yet ask them about Georgie Shore and they could probably give you a full biography of the various cast members.

I often get invited to interview people and have no idea who they are, particularly if they have gained fame through reality TV or soap operas. I tend to tell them to imagine I don't know anything about them (which of course, I don't!) and ask them to talk about themselves for the benefit of our readers. Most aspiring celebs are more than happy to regale you with their life history, no matter how dull, unfortunately. In London you tend to meet famous people even when you don't mean to. In fact, I once got a kiss from comedian Peter Kaye as I was wondering through Leicester Square.

I also got chatting to an adorable young lad at a bar in Shepherd's Bush last year and when he told me his name was Jake Bugg, it didn't ring a bell, but apparently he's a rock star!

The opening of Simon Callow's version of A Christmas Carol was an equally starry event and the stage stalwart showed none of the memory problems, with which I'm tormented; recounting the entire Dickens' classic, while depicting all of the characters in an astonishingly adept solo performance.

I get given lots of 'plus ones' to big shows and I've got a few good friends in London, who I know I can trust to behave appropriately at big glitzy celeb filled events.

Most of the time I'm accompanied by my best buddy, former Uplymer Jon White (who came with me to the Palladium this week), but he was busy on Thursday, so my friend Richard Hadfield (formerly of Britain's Got Talent Collabro fame) tagged along to see A Christmas Carol. It's always weird when you're with a celeb, whether it's just meeting them for a coffee or at a big event, as they often have to become a completely different person when faced with hoards of fans wanting selfies and autographs.

It can be a really intimidating experience, although it does earn big brownie points from the PR companies when you turn up with a famous face, because it makes their opening night photos more likely to appear the papers.

Due to my Christmas deadlines, I'm missing the next few pantomime rehearsals and a sense of impending doom is gradually filtering into my psyche. If you would be interested in watching my latest local stage foray, tickets for Robinson Crusoe at the Guildhall, Axminster (January 19th-21st) are available from the Archway bookshop from December 28th.

To take my mind off the panic, I'm going to see the incomparable

Joe Stilgoe (pianist extraordinaire and son of famed lyricist and entertainer Sir Richard Stilgoe) at the Lyric, Hammer-smith before catching up on the musicals Rent and Dreamgirls, both of which I have missed the press performances of, but as I'm now established, I'm able to request tickets for pretty much whenever I like!

You can read all of my reviews and interviews on our websites london-news.co.uk and viewnews.co.uk or you can follow me on Twitter for regular updates @NickySweetland

SIMON Russell Beale returns to the Royal Shakespeare Company after 20 years to play Prospero in the ground-breaking production of The Tempest, directed by Royal Shakespeare Company Artistic Director Gregory Doran.

On a distant island a man waits. He has been robbed of his position, power and wealth, and his enemies have left him in isolation. But this is no ordinary man, and this no ordinary island.

Prospero is a magician, able to control the elements and bend nature to his will. When a sail appears on the horizon, he reaches out across the ocean to the ship that carries the men who wronged him.

Creating a vast storm he wrecks the ship and washes his enemies up on the shore.

When they awake they find themselves lost on a fantastical island where nothing is as it seems.

In a unique partnership with Intel, the production will be using today's most advanced technology in a bold reimagining of Shakespeare's magical play, creating an unforgettable theatrical experience.

The broadcast of The Tempest will be shown live on Wednesday, January 11th, doors open 6.30pm. Tickets are £12.50 in advance, £15.00 on the door.

FOR one night only, The Gateway is excited to announce Anne Reid's live show is coming to Seaton Anne Reid and her musical director Jason Carr present an evening of songs, stories, music and memories, including filming with Daniel Craig, performing Shakespeare at Buckingham Palace, and making Last Tango in Halifax!

Reid is one of Britain's most-loved and respected actors, star of the very popular Last Tango in Halifax, Ladies of Letters, Dinnerladies and The Mother. What is less well known is her life as a cabaret performer.

Over the past two years Reid's cabaret has sold out at numerous venues across London and now she embarks on a UK tour and is coming to Seaton Gateway Theatre.

Her fascinating stories, such as being ferried about the world by young pilots when she was a young girl of 12, working with actor Daniel Craig, being bombed out of her home in the war and the capers of her fearless mother are both self-deprecating and funny and lead effortlessly into the songs, such as Once Upon A Time.

All in all, this is a nostalgic look at her life and career with highly engaging anecdotes and warm audience rapport.

Anne Reid comes to The Gateway on Saturday, January 14th. Doors open 7.30pm Performance 8pm. Tickets £18 in advance.

WHAT better way to wash away the January Blues than with the nations funkier 10-piece soul band that is Joey The Lips, back for another fast paced, full energy amazing party.

This ten piece band originally formed as a soul outfit, the band has since diversified and whilst Soul is still the staple diet we now describe the show as Funky Soul, Blues & Disco Revue! Today's set is very diverse; from Gimme Some Lovin' (Spencer Davis Group) to Beyonce's Crazy in Love, and from River Deep Mountain High to Queen's Don't Stop Me Now, and the band's storming finale of the B52s' Love Shack, with a heavy metal medley thrown in!

Joey The Lips play live at The Gateway on Saturday, January 21st, doors open 7.30pm.

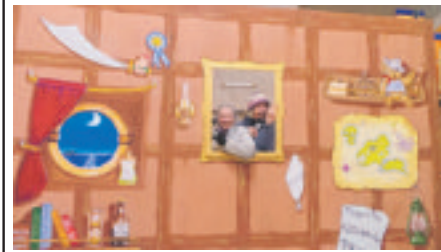

Tickets £13 in advance available from The Gateway Box Office 01297 625699 open Mon-Fri 10am to 4pm and Sat 10am to 1pm.

Colourful Set on the way for Axminster Panto

Preparations are underway for Axminster Drama Clubs next production Robinson Crusoe. For several months now members of the club have been busy making costumes, learning lines and dance routines and everything else that goes into one of ADC's pantomimes. This year current club Chairman Mike Speller will be directing an ADC panto for the first time with the assistance of Jack Price who directed last year's show.

Thanks to the artistic talents of Jackie Demkiw and Heather White this year's scenery looks like being particularly colourful and creative with brand new back cloths and flats well on the way with as usual their now famous humorous touches. The scenery alone is going to be well worth the ticket price!

Tickets go on sale at Archway Bookshop, Church Street, Axminster just after Christmas with performance dates being Thursday 19th to Saturday, January 21st with a matinee on Saturday 21st.

Christadelphians talks in Seaton

CHRISTADELPHIANS (the name means brothers and sisters in Christ) are a worldwide community of men and women who try to follow the teachings and example of Jesus Christ. They are united by a shared faith based on the holy scriptures, and they look forward eagerly to the completion of God's plan for the world and mankind – the setting up of God's kingdom when Jesus returns to the earth as God's appointed King.

The two short talks advertised for Thursday afternoon this week will look at some of the traditions that have grown around the Christmas story compared with the Bible account and take a glimpse at Bible forecasts for the world's future.

The setting is informal and there will be an opportunity to join in the singing of two Christmas hymns.

Spotlight On My Service

JIM ROSE

Qualified Window
Service Engineer
Ex-Anglian/Europlas

My name is Jim Rose and I am a fully qualified window and door service engineer, repairing double glazed windows and doors in the Exeter and East Devon area for over 30 years. before establishing my own repair business 20 years ago I worked for national companies Anglian and Europlas were I gained vast experience in many areas of my trade and excellent customer care skills.

I specialise in Misty double glazed sealed unit replacement, this is when it looks like there is condensation between the glass, all my replacement units are manufactured locally and carry a 5 year guarantee. I measure and fit all my own units which helps to keep costs competitive.

If your windows and doors are draughty, leaking or not closing correctly there are things that can be done to resolve these problems, sometimes it is just a simple adjustment or maybe new hinges or closing mechanism, no matter how old they are there is normally a solution many parts are still available.

I offer free quotations with no call out charge and all my repair work carries a guarantee.

New MINI John Cooper Works Clubman

THE new MINI John Cooper Works Clubman offers all the style, practicality and fresh-thinking of the Clubman, combined with the high performance and sporting dynamics of the John Cooper Works range.

The result is a unique and exclusive proposition that combines the John Cooper Works-specification engine and corresponding modifications with MINI's ALL4 all-wheel drive system. In creating this potent model, able to take full advantage of the maximum possible traction in all conditions, MINI has created a powerful but practical vehicle that's fun to drive in the true spirit of a MINI.

As the latest member of the John Cooper Works family, the MINI John Cooper Works Clubman features all the upgrades already seen on the John Cooper Works Hatch and Convertible models. These include the 231 hp engine with modified MINI TwinPower turbocharger, sports suspension and powerful braking system. A 0-62 mph time of just 6.3-seconds and a top speed of 148 mph is the result, but not at the expense of economy or emissions; with up to 41.5mpg on the combined cycle and CO2 emissions as low as 154 g/km.

The MINI John Cooper Works Clubman is instantly recognisable thanks to its more aggressive front and rear bumpers, and its rear wing. These not only help reduce lift, but in the case of the front section, assist with the additional cooling requirements of the more powerful engine. Unique alloy wheels and John Cooper Works badging also denote the top-of-the-range Clubman, as does the option of the special colour 'Rebel Green'.

Inside, the John Cooper Works specification includes sports seats, an Alcantara headliner, and a wide array of standard equipment including MINI Navigation, Bluetooth and USB connectivity, and cruise control with brake function. MINI logo projection is also included within the standard package. Beyond that, MINI offers a huge range of personalisation options and further equipment, allowing owners to create their own, unique, MINI John Cooper Works Clubman.

Barrington denied Cup Final warm up – Late goals hit Blues

Hengrove Athletic 2 Chard Town 5
Touliston League Div One – att; 30
CHARD town's impressive run-in to the end of 2016 continued as they made it 12 points from a possible 15 after putting five past hosts Hengrove to clinch their first away win of the season.

In the process Max Westlake became the first Chard player to score a hat-trick since Sam Clark netted four in the 7-1 demolition of Devizes back in April 2013 but star of the show was veteran keeper Stu Parris who stepped in for the unavailable Jon Hill and rolled back the years with a fine performance.

They took the lead in the 25th minute when James Boyland was felled in the box and Westlake tucked away the penalty. But the hosts equalised just four minutes later.

However, The Robins edged back in front in the dying second of the half when a slip by a home defender allowed Boyland a free run on goal and he made the most of the opportunity.

Top scorer Boyland netted his ninth of the season on the hour following a neat one-to-one with Scott Martin to give Chard a two-goal cushion.

The win was effectively confirmed when Westlake slotted home his second penalty of the afternoon and he completed his hat-trick 15 minutes from time after latching onto a through ball from Pat Golden.

Hengrove netted a consolation two minutes later but the Robins soared to victory.

Next up for Chard is Boxing Day's local derby at manager Paul Down's old club WINCANTON TOWN (11.30am).

SW PENINSULA LEAGUE (D1E) ST MARTINS 3 AXMINSTER TOWN 0

A POOR performance at Minster Park saw Axminster Town slump to their successive defeat at slip to eighth in the South West Peninsula League table.

The Tigers started brightly but this was to prove their best period of the match as the Saints went marching to victory opening the scoring five minutes before half-time and adding a second courtesy of a crisp 20-yard volley from Jack Rawlings. An own goal rounded things off near the end.

Next up for the Ax is the visit by Teignmouth on Tuesday, December 27th (11am ko).

Axminster: Scott Wells-Burr, Craig Every, Jon Hurford, Ben Clay, Chris Duchenski, Gary Spiller, Liam Cleal, Nathan Warren, Ben Turner, Ben Vine, Tony Pinder. Subs; Elliot Dyer, Mark Smale, Mark Scott.

SOMERSET LEAGUE – D1W

COMBE ST NICHOLAS 3 CONGRESBURY 1
COMBE's first home win since the opening day of the season sees them put distance between themselves and the bottom two who included Saturday's visitors Congresbury.

The hosts took the lead midway through the first half when Mark Biss headed in from Ricardo Silva's cross.

Their dominance continued and they struck again when top-scorer Liam Riste slotted home – again following a corner.

The visitors grabbed a lifeline from the penalty spot before half-time, but the Saints weren't unduly troubled and deservedly sealed the win when Darren Hutchings made it 3-1.

"On another day we could have had six or seven, they weren't good, but we played well," said Combe boss Phil Loaring who is looking forward to the local derby at Ilminster on Christmas Eve (noon ko) boosted by the signing of Perry Street striker Dan Collins.

STREET RESERVES 4 ILMINSTER TOWN 3

ILMINSTER Town's unbeaten start to their league campaign ended in disappointing fashion as they conceded twice in the last 10 minutes at the Tantery Field.

Things started well and they took the lead when Taylor Jefferson was brought down in the area and then stepped up to score from the resulting penalty. But the hosts leveled and then went 2-1 in front before Sam Rowsell pounced on a keeper's fumble to square things up at 2-2 at half-time.

Ilminster boss Jason Manley then introduced Joe Simmons and Chris Nezinyanya off the bench at half time and this changed the flow of the game. Nezinyanya crossed for Simmons to make it 3-2 in the 75th minute.

But the late double strike saw the Blues head home empty-handed. "We were guilty of some pretty naïve defending in the last 10 minutes – I'm very disappointed," said Manley.

DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE

PERRY STREET 4 EAST BUDLEIGH 1 (D3)
PERRY Street remain firmly in the Division Three promotion race with another convincing home win.

They took the lead in some fortunate circumstances when Dan O'Connor challenged the visiting keeper and headed the ball home. The gloveman's claims that he had both hands on the ball fell on deaf ears but Street Manager Andy Bond said: "I would have been disappointed if a goal like that had been given against us, so I have some sympathy for them [East Budleigh]."

Street missed a golden chance when Josh Chadwick misfired from the penalty spot but soon after Callum Machattie crossed for Billy Sheahan to make it 2-0.

Chadwick then atoned for his miss when he crossed for Jamie Brown and Machattie added a fourth on the cusp of half time.

The visitors netted a deserved late consolation near the end. "The second half was a good contest but we did a professional job – Bampton losing makes it interesting," added Bond.

WOODBURY RESERVES 2

ILMINSTER TOWN RESERVES 6 (D7)
A STRONG finish to the match saw Ilminster Town come from behind twice to bank three more points.

The hosts struck first but the Blues were level at half time through Warren Gabbidon.

They conceded again after the break but Ilminster powered home with Gabbidon completing a hat-trick and David Pereira, Ricky Anderson and Kamil Wilk also finding the net.

SHEPTON Beauchamp failed to raise a side for their trip to neighbours Barrington on Saturday: "I'm gutted, we had players dropping out on the morning of the match, it was farcical," said Shepton player-manager Doug Whitfield.

BEAMINSTER 5 NETHERBURY 1

WITH both Shepton and South Petherton inactive, Beaminster extended their lead at the top to five points with victory in the local derby at the Memorial Ground.

Rich Hebbitt (3, 1pen), Dean Hyett and Robin Jones netted for Beaminster with Sam Kapur heading in for the Ambers.

Chard beaten by robust forwards

Thornbury 34 Chard 20

South West One

ANOTHER brave and gutsy performance from the Chard team but the tough bunch of home forwards did more than enough in the second half to seal a bonus point victory which keeps Chard firmly in the relegation places writes Glyn Hughes.

Things did not go right for Chard even before the game started with the news that the growing injury list has now ruled out Luke Apin for the rest of the season with skipper Ryan Helliar and Ben Johnson also likely to be out for several weeks. Chard then lost the toss and were forced to play up the notorious Thornbury slope in the second half.

Chard needed to get some points in the opening half and within a few minutes full back Jon Humphrey kicked a 45 metre penalty to put Chard ahead.

But they always seem vulnerable immediately after they have scored and so it proved again as Thornbury kicker Bob Adams levell things up almost immediately.

Chard then scored a superb try after 10 minutes when a kick down field was gathered by prop Dave Biss who jinked past two players before scoring under the posts. Osman converted.

The home side levelled again when number eight forward Jack Hussey crossed for a converted try. A very evenly contested game reached the break with the scores level at 10-10.

Some poor decision making by Chard in the opening minutes cost them dear when they failed to clear their lines after several opportunities to do so and the home forwards mauled the ball well and drove Chard back over the line to run in two quick tries.

One was converted and within minutes of the half starting Chard were trailing 22-10 and staring down the barrel.

The home forwards had the edge on Chard and their powerful play resulted in two more forwards tries.

But Chard were not finished and two late unconverted tries from Blok Sijeur and Taaleb Johnson brought them to one score of claiming a losing bonus point but it was not to be.

A good game which Thornbury deserved to win and for the first time this season neutral touch judges (all wired up properly) were also employed to officiate along with the referee.

HAVING lost players to the 2nd xv the 3rds were grateful to a number of former players who were tempted out of retirement.

Chard went ahead with a try from Kevin George which he converted himself and increased their lead with another from James Dunning.

Wyvern retaliated well and two tries brought them level at 12-12 at the interval. In the second half Chard pulled away thanks to a MoM performance from skipper Chris Bond. Bond scored a fine try after good work from Chris Doel.

Jason Mallett, Eric Singleton and Neil King also had good games with King crossing for the final try. A bonus point win for Chard with George also getting three conversions.

NB: There are no league matches for the next two weeks but a Chard Vets Team are away at Crewkerne team on Boxing Day (1.30pm ko). Any vets interested in taking part are asked to confirm their availability with Wayne Lewis on 07714075623 as soon as possible.

Success for new boy Bob

FOLLOWING the wash out on Monday, 33 Seniors reconvened on Wednesday to participate in a variation of a three man Bowmaker tournament when the previous rain made for good scoring on the receptive greens.

New member, Bob Rees contributed well and helped his team mates in registering a commendable 84 points which proved to be the winning score.

There was an exciting battle for second place between Barry Singleton's team and Roger Stone's with both returning identical scores, but the former claimed runners up spot by virtue of a better back nine.

Result: 1st Bob Rees; Alan Chance & Keith Branchflower 84 points, 2nd Barry Singleton; John Pearce & Barrie Heath 79, 3rd Roger Stone; Tom Downey & Bryan Frost 79.

Meanwhile, 44 Seniors attended the fourth round of the Winter League pairs competition on Friday.

In unusual sunshine and perfect conditions, the teams took advantage of the weather with several pairings topping 40 points.

John Wandless and Robin Flower took the honours with a round of 10 under par with pairs led by Keith Branchflower and Norman Markby both recording rounds of 9 under par.

Round 4; 1st John Wandless & Robin Flower 46 points, 2nd Keith Branchflower & Bill Hilson 45, 3rd Norman Markby & John Pearce 45, 4th Alan Chance & John Evans 44.

Cup win for Blues

AFTER two failed attempts to play their first-round league cup fixture against fellow league opposition AEK Boco, Ilminster Town Ladies finally progressed to round two.

Ilminster Town Ladies 3 AEK Boco 2

Somerset League Cup R1
ILMINSTER took the lead in the fifth minute when a superb pass from captain Sarah Miller found Play-off-the-Match Shannon Crouch who calmly put the ball past the keeper.

The lead was doubled when a ball poked back into the goalmouth from Jade Shoemark caused a mix up in the Bristol-based opposition's defence and it somehow found its way in the back of the net.

Five minutes later Miller was forced off with a head injury and was rushed of to A&E by manager Craig Stuckey.

After the incident Bocco pulled one back before the interval.

But the two-goal cushion was restored in the 55th minute when Molly Bidgood was tripped in the box and Shannon Crouch made no mistake from the resulting penalty.

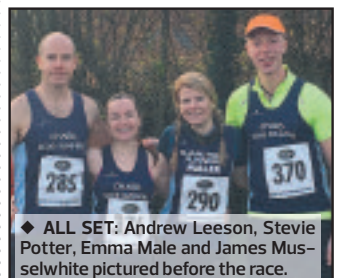

Back came the visitors they netted a second, this time from the penalty spot after and a handball by centre half Sammie Knight.

New instructors

◆ FLYING COLOURS: The Great commitment and sailing talent from some of the younger members at Sutton Bingham Sailing Club has resulted in five of them becoming Royal Yacht Association Dinghy Instructors.

Kelsey Green, Lewis Perry, Sam Barnes-Thornton, Annie and Sophie Talbot were identified by Mark Talbot, former Cadet Sailing Organiser, as potential instructors. Over the summer as Assistant Instructors they supported the club's extensive youth programme teaching youngsters on our summer sailing courses. Following this they undertook intensive training over three weekends run by Pete Muskett and Jen Miller, both Coach Assessors with the RYA, to gain their full Dinghy Instructor qualification.

David Thomson, Training Principal at SBSC said: "The course is very demanding and includes a pre-entry assessment when you have to demonstrate, amongst other things, that you can sail without a rudder, sail in a very tight circle – a real test of tacking and gybing technique and be able to sail a variety of dinghies. It is unusual for all the candidates on a course to pass outright without some remedial action, so massive congratulations to them all."

HOLYROOD Academy's Under 13 girls football team was one of 16 from Somerset, Devon, Wiltshire and Dorset that recently competed in the Yeovil Town Regional Girls Cup Tournament.

Holyrood won all their pool matches (Bucklers 4-0, Budmouth 3-0, Blue School 2-1, and Selwood B 7-0) and qualified top of the group for the quarter finals where they beat Selwood A 7-0. In the semi-final, Holyrood defeated Budmouth for a second time (3-0). The final pitted them against a high-scoring Preston team. After a tight match, Player of the Tournament Katie Beale struck twice in the last five minutes to take her tally for the competition up to 12 and secure victory for the Holyrood girls who go forward to represent Yeovil Town at the Regional finals in 2017.

Let's play a game.
